As part of your pending legal case before the Court, you have been asked to attend an interview with a psychologist. You will undergo a psychological evaluation and receive a diagnostic letter, which will convey to the Court your background and the impact your arrest and pending charge have had on you.

Please call Advantage Psychological Services at the number above to schedule your diagnostic appointment. You will meet with Dr. Lexi Welanetz-Bursin, Director of Advantage Psychological Services, licensed psychologist and Qualified Medical Examiner. Clinically, she specializes in the treatment of addiction, eating disorders, trauma, mood disorders, chronic mental illness and couples counseling.

Two forms must be read, completed, and signed prior to your evaluation, which can be found on-line at www.drlexi.com. On the website, go to "Forms" to complete the "DUI Consent" and "DUI Application" forms. Also, use these forms, even if your charges are not related to a DUI charge. Download, print, complete and bring these forms with you to your scheduled evaluation. Currently evaluations are performed via tele-health. The details of that will be forwarded to you prior to the appointment.

During your interview, you will be asked to provide personal information, as well as the facts relating to your arrest. At the time of the evaluation, a payment for services in full is due in the amount between $550.00 (misdemeanor) or 650.00 (felony) for short form and $850.00 for the long form, which can be remitted by credit card or Venmo or Zelle. This fee includes your interview (60-90 minutes) and my preparation of the forthcoming diagnostic report (2.5 – 5 hours). Please arrive on time for your appointment, as the full time is needed for your assessment. Any rescheduling without 24-hour notice will be assessed a $75 late cancellation fee.

Thank you!
